Pre-K Author Study

The Pre-K classes participated in a project about authors. They learned about authors, illustrators, fiction, non-fiction, collage art, writing and "circle stories". Laura Numeroff writes circle stories—that is a story that starts and ends at the same place.

Eric Carle painted tissue paper and put pieces together to illustrate many of his books.

We used pieces of old carpet and the back of a paint brush to make pictures, just like Eric Carle.

Eric Carle

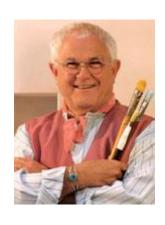

We made great pictures using our hands as hermit crabs. We decorated the shells of the hermit crabs using cray pas. They looked similar to the hermit crab in the story A House for Hermit Crab.

Pre-K Author Study

We read Tomie diPaola's 'The Art Box' a story about how much the author loved to illustrate. We created our own masterpieces.

We incorporated math by measuring different objects. Here we traced our foot and measured it using one inch pipe cleaners after reading 'Inch By Inch'.

We made collages just like Leo Lionni did to illustrate many of his books.

Pre-K Author Study

We made our own pancakes, counted pancakes and practiced writing the letter P to go with the book If You Give A Pig A Pancake.

Laura Numeroff

We learned about word families and made our own –AT words to go with the book If You Give A Cat A Cupcake.